

Immigration & Balance

One of every six Canadian residents was born outside of Canada and over 200,000 people will become citizens this year. Immigration has helped to make Canada a culturally rich, prosperous and progressive nation but are there challenges in welcoming new citizens? Hear a panel of experts weigh in on the benefits and costs of growing our Canadian culture and economy through immigration.

- Randy Boissonnault, Honorable Member of Parliament for Edmonton City Centre
- Alice Wong, Director – Immigration Settlement and Language Programs, Government of Alberta, Ministry of Labour
- Tom Sutton, Regional Director, Access & Service Delivery, Alberta Community & Social Services
- Dr. Glenn Feltham, President and CEO of the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology
- Kristine Conroy, Regional Program Manager, Enforcement and Intelligence Division, Canada Border Services Agency (CSBA)
- Antoinette Davis and Shahriyar Khan, City of Edmonton Multicultural Relations
- Ese Ejebe, Manager, Catholic Social Services
- Crystal Willie, Consultant, Purple Aspen Consulting
- Ashif Mawji, Entrepreneur, Trust Science Co-Founder and Key Advisor
- Dr. Bob Ascah, Moderator

When: Thursday February 22, 2018 (CPE Credits: 3)

Where: The Sutton Place Hotel, 10235 – 101 Street, Edmonton, AB

Cost: $65.00 per person; Contact: albertafmi@gmail.com

Register: register.fmiedmonton.com

www.FMEdmonton.com

